violations of this part or 20 CFR part 655, subpart B relating to the labor certification the bond is intended to cover. The aggregate liability of the surety shall not exceed the face amount of the bond. The bond must be written to cover liability incurred during the term of the period listed in the Application for Temporary Employment Certification for labor certification made by an H–2ALC, and shall be amended to cover any extensions of the labor certification requested by an H–2ALC.

(c) The bond must be in the amount of $5,000 for a labor certification for which an H–2ALC will employ fewer than 25 workers; $10,000 for a labor certification for which an H–2ALC will employ 25 to 49 workers; $20,000 for a labor certification for which an H–2ALC will employ 50 to 74 workers; $50,000 for a labor certification for which an H–2ALC will employ 75 to 99 workers; and $75,000 for a labor certification for which an H–2ALC will employ 100 or more workers. The WHD Administrator may require that an H–2ALC obtain a bond with a higher face value amount after notice and opportunity for hearing when it is shown based on objective criteria that the amount of the bond is insufficient to meet potential liabilities.

(d) The bond must remain in force for a period of no less than 2 years from the date on which the labor certification expires. If the WHD has commenced any enforcement action under the regulations in this part against an H–2ALC employer or any successor in interest by that date, the bond shall remain in force until the conclusion of such action and any related appeal or related litigation. Surety bonds may not be canceled or terminated unless 45 days' notice is provided by the surety in writing to the WHD Administrator at the address set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Petition any appropriate District Court of the U.S. for temporary or permanent injunctive relief, including to prohibit the withholding of unpaid wages and/or for reinstatement, or to restrain violation of 8 U.S.C. 1188, 20 CFR part 655, subpart B, or the regulations in this part, by any person.
